U.S. Visa Fee Payment Instructions

To pay your U.S. visa application fee through electronic funds transfer (EFT) via connectIPS, ensure you have an account with one of the banks listed here.

Steps to Pay Through connectIPS

- Log into connectIPS with your user ID and password linked to a Nepali bank account.
- Select 'U.S. Visa Fee Payment' under Creditors Payment on the dashboard.
- Select your bank account number and enter:
 - CGI Reference number (mentioned above)
 - Primary Applicant Name
 - Primary Applicant's Passport number
 - Expiration date (mentioned above)
- Click Make Payment.
- Enter the transaction password and OTP. Save the transaction confirmation as your payment receipt.

ONLY payments from Nepali Rupee accounts in Nepal are accepted.

Instructions for Visa Applicants

- Use this deposit slip to make your visa fee payment before the expiration date.
- Print only one copy of the deposit slip. DO NOT PRINT MULTIPLE COPIES.
- Schedule your interview two hours after payment.
- Return to <http://www.ustraveldocs.com/np/> and enter the CGI reference number as your receipt.
- For issues, visit <http://www.ustraveldocs.com/np/> and select CONTACT US.
- Your visa fee is non-refundable and non-transferable. Valid for 12 months.
